Far Hills Country Day School to Host Scholar Search Educational Forum for Families

Far Hills, NJ – Far Hills Country Day School (Far Hills) will host a Scholar Search Educational Forum for Families on Saturday, March 4, 2017, from 9:15 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Intellectually curious and gifted students in Kindergarten through Grade 12 are encouraged to attend, along with their parents. The Forum is free and open to the public.

Interactive workshops for students will range from great graphic novels, human psychology, wind turbines and renewable energy, and creating a mini-musical extravaganza. Presentations for parents will include topics such as early college acceptance, conquering language with fractals, lifelong learning strategies, controlling anxiety and relaxation techniques, and much more.

Several presentations will feature expert Far Hills faculty and staff, including two programs for parents:

- Relaxation Techniques to Relieve Your Child's Stress
  - Sue Miller (Grade 2 Teacher)
  - Pam Berstler (Administrative Assistant)
- Conquering Language Learning Quickly With Fractals
  - Nicola McGill (French Teacher)
  - Pamela Rose (Mandarin Teacher)

And four programs for students:

- The Great (Graphic) Novel
  - Emily Seelaus and Natalie Udell (English Teachers)
- Wind Turbines
  - Julie Blanco, Cathy Cirrotti, Jen Wagar, and Mary Wagner (Science Teachers)

- Come on Get Happy...Chase All Your Cares Away
  - Sue Miller (Grade 2 Teacher)
  - Pam Berstler (Administrative Assistant)

- The Far Hills Mini-Musical Extravaganza!
  - Gemma Keremedjiev (Grade 4 Teacher)
  - Callie Shafto (Spanish & Performing Arts Teacher)

“I am thrilled that Far Hills Country Day School will co-host the Northern New Jersey Educational Forum with Scholar Search this year. Scholar Search has deep experience developing these forums for intellectually curious students and families who seek information about opportunities and approaches that enable and sustain an excitement in learning. The Forum offers a wide-range presentations and workshops, several of which will be run by Far Hills faculty. The Forum promises to be engaging and enlightening, and supports our commitment to strength of mind and strength of character,” said Far Hills Head of School, Tom Woelper.

To sign up to attend the Forum, visit www.scholarsearchassoc.com/index.php/north-nj-2016.
