Far Hills Country Day School's Christopher Zaiser Named Recipient of Diman Scholarship at Portsmouth Abbey School

Far Hills, NJ – Christopher Zaiser, an eighth-grade student who attends Far Hills Country Day School, has been awarded the Diman Scholarship from Portsmouth Abbey School in Portsmouth, R.I. 2016–2017 academic year.

Son of Robert and Georgia Zaiser, Christopher has been a high-honors student each trimester of his Far Hills Upper School career. He is involved in theater, recently playing the lead in the School production of Footloose; a member of the fencing team and a representative in the student government. Christopher will be a member of the Abbey's Class of 2020.

The Reverend Hugh Diman Scholarship, established to honor the founder and first headmaster of the School, is a competitive and prestigious merit-based grant, awarded each year to one boarding student entering the Third Form (Grade 9). The recipient receives a full merit scholarship equaling the annual tuition, room and board. Christopher was selected from over 500 applicants to receive this honor.

Portsmouth Abbey School is a coeducational, Catholic Benedictine boarding and day school for students in grades 9-12. The School is located along the picturesque shores of Rhode Island's Narragansett Bay.
