Summer Reading Project Ideas

- Write a continuation of your story. What happens in the next chapter? This should be at least one page in length.
- Make a shadow box or diorama displaying your favorite scene.
- Make a three-minute video recording with a reenactment of one of your favorite events from the story.
- Draw a comic strip for your favorite scene from the book you read.
- Design an advertisement poster for your book. Include digital images (clip art, photos, and graphics) that will interest your readers in purchasing the book. Be sure to include two paragraphs that tell about the characters and another that gives plot details to interest readers without giving the ending away.
- Write a letter/email to the author telling what you liked about his/her book. The letter must have at least two paragraphs and follow the friendly letter format.
- Write a diary entry (10 sentence minimum) that one of the main characters might have kept during the book’s events.
- Write a poem (minimum 15 lines) from the point of view of a character in your book; write a paragraph explaining your project.
- Make a character poster for the main character in your book. Include a paragraph that describes your character’s personality.
- Film a “movie trailer” for the book (at least two minutes; write a paragraph explaining your project.)
